Reading: Are songs poetry?

Ausgabe 3,
Dezember 2026

English to go:
Voices and verses
DIGITAL LESEN | TOPIC|digi
topicdigi.at/s/Vjep

My name: _____

1. Scan the QR code and read the texts (A-E). Match each statement (1-8) with the person who said it. You can use names more than once. There is one extra option that you will not need. Put an X next to this option.

1.	In the past, songs and poems were the same thing.
2.	Every song is a poem.
3.	Poems have to work without music.
4.	Students like reading song lyrics more than poems.
5.	Some songs use the same lines many times.
6.	A singer's voice can change how the words of a song feel: happy, angry, or sad.
7.	Songs make this person think of different places and people.
8.	Reading song lyrics can make students want to write their own songs.

2. Language in use: Complete the sentences below. Use the correct form of the words in the brackets.

a) Her favourite _____ (write) makes books for young people.

b) The _____ (sing) became famous after her first song.

c) His dream is to become a _____ (music).

d) She is a very fast _____ (read) and reads a lot of books.

e) I don't read much _____ (poet), but I like this poem.

f) I enjoy _____ (write) stories in my free time.

g) I find _____ (read) very relaxing.

Autorinnen: Mag.ª MA Eva Konrad/Mag.ª Annabell Marinell
© JUNGÖSTERREICH Bildungsmedienverlag, Innsbruck