English to go:
Charlotte's life blog
DIGITAL LESEN 📖 |TOPIC|digi
edurl.at/8eua2w

Mein Name:

1.

Scan the QR code and read Charlotte's blog entry. Choose the correct letters (A–I) to complete the sentences. There is one extra option that you will not need. Write a X in this box.

A	Charlotte feels bad because she		give her some tips.
B	Charlotte's family		be patient with yourself.
C	Charlotte has already		uses too much plastic.
D	Charlotte asks her readers to		made a good suggestion.
E	After going on holiday, Niki		carries a bottle with her.
F	Josh says it's important to		is very helpful.
G	At the shops, Charlotte could		read many books on the topic.
H	Marie thinks that Josh has		buy glass instead of plastic bottles.
I	When Marie goes out, she		stopped using plastic.
			read a lot online.

2.

Read the text about Greta Thunberg's life. Use the words in the box to complete the gaps. There is one word that you will not need.

movement	future	attention	criticism	climate	action
power	age	government	activist	years	difference

Greta Thunberg, born in Stockholm, Sweden, is a famous climate (a) _____. When she was just 15 (b) _____ old, she protested outside the Swedish Parliament and made people aware of (c) _____ change. Her protest started a global (d) _____ called Fridays for Future.

Thunberg's speeches and determination caught the (e) _____ of world leaders. She has spoken at the United Nations Climate Action Summit and the World Economic Forum, telling them to take immediate (f) _____ .

Her efforts earned her recognition and awards, including being named Time magazine's Person of the Year.

Despite facing (g) _____ , Thunberg is a powerful voice for young people and inspires them to fight for a sustainable (h) _____ .

Greta Thunberg shows that (i) _____ doesn't matter when it comes to making a (j) _____ .

Her dedication reminds us that everyone has the (k) _____ to impact the world.

Not needed: _____

www.jungoesterreich.at
LEHRERSERVICE